Welcome International Students

We are pleased that you have chosen to be part of the SRM University AP community where you will join international students and scholars representing many countries. We encourage you to share your culture, experiences, and perspectives. Your contributions will enhance the experience of everyone at SRM AP.

Welcome to SRM University-AP, Andhra Pradesh is a multi-stream research university with a focus on diverse fields. From Engineering to Sciences and Liberal Arts to Management, SRM University-AP's vision is to emerge as a world-class university that is globally connected, nationally relevant, and regionally transformative. It has an ambitious plan to be in the top world-class universities in ten years.

SRM University-AP has partnered with the world's best names for educational method and philosophy, campus design and infrastructure, learning and living spaces, and recruitment of faculty and leadership. Perkins & Will, a renowned American Architecture Firm, that has designed some of the leading universities in the world, is the architect for this new-age institution. The campus is sprawled over 100 acres of lush greenery and is facilitated with top-notch equipment and infrastructure.

With students in India seeking more interdisciplinary programs and flexibility in learning, SRM University, AP -Andhra Pradesh has revamped how the programs are offered, and the curriculum is designed. There is also an increasing focus on experiential learning (learning through doing) and technology-enabled active learning. SRM University-AP has introduced 'Inter-Disciplinary Experiential Active Learning (IDEAL).

SRM University welcomes foreign students from all over the world for admission into its different courses and programs. More than 200 plus students from Afghanistan, Nepal, Tanzania, Zimbabwe, Nigeria, Sudan, and Sri Lanka are into several programs.

International students are given a hand-holding transition and adaption phase into the new country through the Office of International Relations is located on the second floor of B block, Cabin-6. The office has academic advisers and guides to take you through programs, important activities, student life, and other details. The Office also has a peer group, that comprises already enrolled international as well as domestic students who can help you get familiar with the university, the city, and the overall cultural-educational dynamics.

About Amravati

Amravati is located 32 kilometers north of Guntur District is Known as the Capital of Andhra Pradesh, is a planned city on the banks of the River Krishna. Amravati is renowned for being a site of a Buddhist Stupa that is a semi-hemispherical structure containing Buddhist relics and is often called the Abode of God and a prime hub of pilgrimage and sightseeing. The original structure was established during the reign of Emperor Ashoka which is now a meditation site in the city.

Weather

With the River Krishna flowing through it, the Indrakeeladri Hills in the west, and the Budameru stream in the north, the climate is essentially a tropical one. The summers are hot and humid and the winters are moderate. In the summer months, the climate is dominated by scorching heat which gets hotter every day, and the level of humidity also rises. The summer months stretch from the month of April to the month of June. The temperatures during these months range from 17 to 45 degrees centigrade. In the winter season, the climate of Vijayawada is moderate and in fact very cool and pleasant. The temperature ranges between 10 to 30 degrees Centigrade. The climate of Vijayawada is also marked by a considerable amount of rainfall. You can always turn to the office of international relations for any help.

History and culture

Being part of several different dynasties over centuries, Amaravati has a miscellaneous culture that is rich and diverse. It used to have a great cultural impact on the people of Madhya Pradesh, Gujarat, Maharashtra, Karnataka, and Andhra during the post-Mauryan period. The Satvahana rulers preserved Hinduism and patronized Buddhism with equal care. It enriched the culture of Amaravati with enlightenment and rationality.

Many historical facts bear testimony to the Buddhist influence on the culture of Amravati in the bygone years. The valley between the Krishna and the Godavari River had been a prominent site of Buddhism since before the Satvahana rose to power.

Amaravati is known for its own school of architecture influenced by Buddhist art and culture. The Amravati school of architecture has unique features, which are evident from the sculptural work on the Buddhist monastery of Amaravathi.

According to art historians and art critics, Amaravati art is among the major three ancient schools of Indian art.

Amaravati is a seat of pilgrimage for not only Buddhists but also Hindus. It is home to several Lord Shiva temples, of which the most famous is Lord Amaralingeswara or Amareswara Swamy Temple.

Amaravati is also known as the 'City of Tolerance' or Sridhanyakataka. Being a center of pilgrimage for Hindus and Buddhism, Amaravati is also known as 'Punyakshetra' (holy land).

Language

The people of Amravati mainly speak Telugu and English.

FRRO registration is applicable for all country students except Nepal and Bhutan. For FFRO Registration or visa extension assistance, students have to contact the Office international relations office at Block B - Cabin 6.

The Foreigner Registration Office is the primary body to regulate the international student's registration, movement, stay, departure, and also for recommending the extension of stay in India being operated by the Ministry of External Affairs, Govt of India

Registration is mandatory and as mentioned on the website of "BUREAU OF IMMIGRATION, Ministry of Home Affairs, Govt. of India. that every Foreigner visiting India on Student Visa(S) (including those coming for the study of Yoga, Vedic Culture, the Indian system of dance and Music), Research Visa(R), valid for more than 180 days are required to get himself/herself registered with concerned FRRO, within 14 days of his/her first arrival, irrespective of the duration of his / her stay.

Even in other Visa types, if the Indian Visa has a stipulation/ observation/ Special endorsement for registration made by the Indian Mission / Embassy on the Indian Visa for less than 180 days, the Foreigners are required to be registered

- It is part of the normal mandatory process set up by the Ministry of External Affairs of India for all international students that within the stipulated timeframe of arrival in India, the student has to register his/her name online with the police in the designated Foreigner Regional Registration Office (FRRO) at nearby Regional Office
- The time frame or rules for the FRRO may vary from 24 hours to 14 days of arrival depending on the country of origin, thus seek the most updated information from the Ministry of External Affairs website.
- A student with a PIO card also must register at the FRRO. Only OCI cardholders need not register.
- SRM University International relations office would provide necessary assistance and information in this regard. It is the responsibility of the students to get the registration done on time as early as possible after arriving in India by submitting the essential documents required for FRRO Registration.

Late submission or non-submission of required FRRO registration documents to International Relations Office may cause Expiry of 14 days' time of registration

, which again results in the penalty in the form of fine or cancellation of the visa by the FRRO Administration, fine may be less or more depending upon the screening of the student's case which may vary from one student to another, in this whole scenario International relations Office would not be responsible for any communication with FRRO for any sort of relief.

As soon as FRRO registration takes place with all essential documents submitted online by the student and verification done by FRRO personnel from the university and at the residence of the student, the student receives the residence permit issued by FRRO. It is the responsibility of the student to submit that document to the University within the stipulated time as prescribed by the University from time to time.

- The applicable fee or fine if any for the FRRO/Visa extension/immigration process and other related expenses has to be additionally borne by the student.
- It is also the responsibility of the student to inform designated FRRO in case they are leaving the county (both in case of temporary movement like going for holidays and also in case students want to permanently leave the county because the program is over or students wants to discontinue the program or student has been expelled or have been denied admission.)
- Students are not required to register / herself on each visit as long as he/she is visiting on the same visa on which he/she is registered earlier. However, theregistered foreigner needs to report to FRRO, if; re-enters India on a fresh visa.
- Further, if the registered foreigner obtains a new passport during the validity of his registration and visa, then the foreigner is required to get the visa transferred on to his new passport from FRRO.
- Also, in case there are any changes in the foreign registration rule then University may seek more information as required from the student and/or can direct to follow the most recent guidelines as applicable and define by the government from time to time.
- University may debar the student to continue attending classes or staying in the university residential facility if a student does not maintain a valid visa/ FRRO or does not follow any guidelines issued by the Govt. of India/ Govt. of Andhra Pradesh /University/ any other authority from time to time.
- For loss of attendance/academics or any expenditure so occurred because of such action by the university, the student himself will be responsible and no relaxation or benefit may be provided in such cases and all expenditure has to be borne by the student.
- In case the initial visa is not endorsed for the complete duration of the program or the student has to extend the stay because he/she is not able to complete the program in the stipulated time then the student should apply for the extension of the visa before it expires, student needs to approach international relations office for supporting documents from the university.
