

RECRUITMENT OF DISTINGUISHED VISITING SCHOLARS FROM INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITIES

Paari School of Business, SRM University-AP, India welcomes applications for “Distinguished Visiting Scholars” from overseas Universities of repute.

SRM University-AP is a new private University set up near Vijayawada in Andhra Pradesh, India. It is a dynamic, research focused University with 6000 students and 300 faculty. Paari School of Business is its B school headed by Dean Bharadhwaj Sivakumaran. Paari School of Business offers BBA, MBA and PhD programmes and has a unique, immersive curriculum, excellent infrastructure, competent and enthusiastic students and dedicated and well-qualified faculty. Please visit <https://srmap.edu.in/> and <https://srmap.edu.in/seams/management/> for more details.

All its faculty have PhD degrees from leading schools in India and abroad.

Dean Bharadhwaj Sivakumaran holds a PhD in Marketing from the University of Maryland, College Park and has worked in NTU, Singapore, IIT Madras, India and Great Lakes Institute of Management, Chennai before joining Paari School of Business, SRM University-AP.

The Paari School of Business (PSB) invites leading researchers from any field in Management (OB/HR, Marketing, Business Analytics, Accounting and Finance, Operations/Supply Chain Management, Strategy) as a Distinguished Visiting Scholar.

Duration: January-May 2024 (one semester) or January-December 2024 (one year i.e. two semesters).

Responsibilities: Visiting Distinguished Professors would

1. Collaborate with PSB faculty on research.
2. Present their own research once a month to all PSB faculty.
3. Conduct a series of workshops for PhD students
4. Teach a course for MBA students. The course would be one section, around 30-60 students or so and a TA would be provided for grading.

Benefits for the Visiting Distinguished Professor

1. A salary of INR (Indian Rupee) 300000 - 450000 per month (equal to USD 13000 - 17000 in purchasing power parity terms)*.
2. An opportunity to work with the faculty of PSB on research.
3. An opportunity to collect data from India.
4. A chance to tour the beautiful state of Andhra Pradesh and parts of India and soak in its rich culture.
5. A chance to do cross-cultural research.
6. An opportunity to serve on doctoral committees of PhD students.

*may vary depending on experience and qualification of candidate.

Application Process

Applicants may e-mail the Dean of PSB, Prof. Bharadhwaj Sivakumaran, at bharadhwaj.s@srmap.edu.in. The application must include

- A cover letter indicating their interest and suitability for the position
- A current CV.
- Copies of some recent publications.

Applications should reach latest by December 20, 2023 and the subject line of the e-mail can be “application for distinguished visiting scholar”.

Facilities Provided to Visiting Distinguished Professors

1. An office room.
2. Accommodation on campus or in the vicinity of SRM University-AP.
3. Access to all e-databases and computing facilities of SRM University-AP.
4. Competitive monthly salary in Indian rupees based on University norms and commensurate with qualifications and experience of the candidate.

Requirements for the Position

- ▶ An excellent research record: publications in top tier journals in his/her respective area, high number of citations.
- ▶ Potential for research collaboration with PSB faculty.