Course Objectives / Course Learning Rationales (CLRs)

- To study the scope of Environmental Science and the idea of sustainability.
- To acquire basic knowledge of environmental ethics, critical environmental laws, and policies.
- To explore various sources and challenges in the renewable energy sector in replacing conventional energy.

Course Outcomes / Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs)

|                  | At the end of the course the learner will be able to   | Bloom's Level | Expected Proficiency Percentage | Expected Attainment Percentage |
|------------------|--|---------------|---------------------------------|--------------------------------|

Course Objectives / Course Learning Rationales (CLRs)

- Develop a foundational understanding of linguistic principles to enhance language comprehension and expression.
- Explore the historical evolution of language, tracing its impact on cultural and societal dynamics.
- Acquire essential skills in grammar, syntax, and semantics to improve written and verbal communication.
- Foster critical thinking by analysing language in various contexts, promoting a nuanced appreciation for linguistic diversity

Course Outcomes / Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs)

|                  | At the end of the course the learner will be able to   | Bloom's Level | Expected Proficiency Percentage | Expected Attainment Percentage |
|------------------|--|---------------|---------------------------------|--------------------------------|

Course Objectives / Course Learning Rationales (CLRs)

- Recognize and recall the foundational principles and theories of lateral thinking.
- Explain the significance of lateral thinking in problem-solving and creative ideation.
- Apply diverse lateral thinking techniques to approach and solve complex problems across various domains.
- Analyse and evaluate the effectiveness of different lateral thinking strategies in real-world scenarios.

Course Outcomes / Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs)

|           | At the end of the course the learner will be able to  | Bloom's Level | Expected Proficiency Percentage | Expected Attainment Percentage |
|-----------|---|---------------|---------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| Outcome 1 | Define key concepts and principles associated with lateral thinking.                          | 1             | 80%                             | 80%                            |

Course Objectives / Course Learning Rationales (CLRs)

- Analyse gender constructs through a gynocritical lens, deconstructing prevalent societal norms and stereotypes.
- Apply theoretical frameworks to address real-world gender issues, fostering critical thinking and problem-solving skills.
- Explore the psychological and physical ramifications of objectification within the context of gender, shedding light on its pervasive effects.
- Examine the intersectionality of gender, violence, and trauma, identifying systemic patterns and advocating for holistic approaches to support survivors.

Course Outcomes / Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs)

|                  | At the end of the course the learner will be able to  | Bloom's Level | Expected Proficiency Percentage | Expected Attainment Percentage |
|------------------|---|---------------|---------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| Outcome 1 | Demonstrate the ability to conduct inductive genre analysis by identifying recurring patterns, themes, and stylistic elements within a given genre.   | 2             | 70%                             | 75%                            |
| Outcome 2 | Identify socio-cultural influences that have impacted the genre's trajectory and assess the genre's relevance in contemporary contexts.   | 3             | 60%                             | 65%                            |
| Outcome 3 | Analyse the foundational texts of a chosen genre. Students will be able to articulate the historical and cultural context that influenced the emergence of these texts and understand their significance in shaping the genre | 4             | 60%                             | 65%                            |
| Outcome 4 | Develop the ability to craft well-reasoned genre criticism, demonstrating analysis and argumentation.   | 5             | 65%                             | 70%                            |

Course Objectives / Course Learning Rationales (CLRs)

- To introduce the Evaluation methods of Written Scripts in English Language.
- To validate reliability of the test and its scores using written transcripts.
- To create rubrics per task.
- To learn how to identify plagiarism and provide appropriate feedback

Course Outcomes / Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs)

|                  | At the end of the course the learner will be able to              | Bloom's Level | Expected Proficiency Percentage | Expected Attainment Percentage |

Course Objectives / Course Learning Rationales (CLRs)

- Understanding the Significance of Literature Reviews and Methodologies
- Developing Critical Skills in Literature Review and Analysis
- Applying Research Methods in English Literature Studies
- Promoting Academic Integrity in Research Practices

Course Outcomes / Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs)

|                  | At the end of the course the learner will be able to  | Bloom's Level | Expected Proficiency Percentage | Expected Attainment Percentage |
|------------------|---|---------------|---------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| Outcome 1 | Demonstrate the significance of literature reviews and research methodologies in English literature studies.                                  | 2             | 60%                             | 65%                            |

Course Objectives / Course Learning Rationales (CLRs)

- Analyse gender constructs through a gynocritical lens, deconstructing prevalent societal norms and stereotypes.
- Apply theoretical frameworks to address real-world gender issues, fostering critical thinking and problem-solving skills.
- Explore the psychological and physical ramifications of objectification within the context of gender, shedding light on its pervasive effects.
- Examine the intersectionality of gender, violence, and trauma, identifying systemic patterns and advocating for holistic approaches to support survivors.

Course Outcomes / Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs)

|                  | At the end of the course the learner will be able to  | Bloom's Level | Expected Proficiency Percentage | Expected Attainment Percentage |
|------------------|---|---------------|---------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| Outcome 1 | Demonstrate the ability to conduct inductive genre analysis by identifying recurring patterns, themes, and stylistic elements within a given genre.   | 2             | 70%                             | 75%                            |

Course Objectives / Course Learning Rationales (CLRs)

- Identify and describe key concepts, theories, and methodologies relevant to the research topic.
- Explain the significance of existing literature and how it relates to the research question.
- Develop and execute a research plan, including data collection and analysis, using appropriate methods.
- Evaluate the research findings in the context of existing knowledge and theoretical frameworks.

Course Objectives / Course Learning Rationales (CLRs)

- Identify and describe key concepts, theories, and methodologies relevant to the research topic.
- Explain the significance of existing literature and how it relates to the research question.
- Develop and execute a research plan, including data collection and analysis, using appropriate methods.
- Evaluate the research findings in the context of existing knowledge and theoretical frameworks

Course Objectives / Course Learning Rationales (CLRs)

The primary objectives of the course are to make the students

- 1. understand the key concepts of translation.
- 2. gain knowledge of different translations that have taken place from prescribed texts.
- 3. compare and analyse the changes from the source texts to the target texts.
- 4. apply knowledge in translating various texts in practicality.

Course Outcomes / Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs)

Course Objectives / Course Learning Rationales (CLRs)

- Understand the Representational Hierarchy
- Navigate the Gap between Map and Territory
- Decode the Linguistic Map
- Master the Art of Reprogramming Language

Course Outcomes / Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs)

|                  | At the end of the course, the learner will be able to   | Bloom's Level | Expected Proficiency Percentage | Expected Attainment Percentage |
|------------------|---|---------------|---------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| Outcome 1 | Comprehend the concepts related to representational systems, modalities, and filters.                       | 2             | 65%                             | 75%                            |

Course Objectives / Course Learning Rationales (CLRs)

- To provide a systematic knowledge and understanding of the anatomy and functioning of the speech organs.
- To explore the diversity of speech sounds/ recognize differential pronunciation and identify and classify vowels and consonants of English language.
- To train the students in gaining a theoretical perspective on speech communication at various levels/ explain the various aspects of articulation of speech sounds.
- To teach practical skills such as phonetic transcription and reading of dictionaries.

Course Objectives / Course Learning Rationales (CLRs)

- To revisit the futility of the First World War and the place it holds in the British memory.
- To explore two types of World War poetry: patriotic elegies romanticizing it and others exposing the harrowing realities of shellshock and mass destruction.
- To analyse and understand the transition from a pro-war to an anti-war attitude with the changing views of the early twentieth century.

Course Objectives / Course Learning Rationales (CLRs)

- To provide a systematic knowledge and understanding of the anatomy and functioning of the speech organs.
- To explore the diversity of speech sounds/ recognize differential pronunciation and identify and classify vowels and consonants of English language.
- To train the students in gaining a theoretical perspective on speech communication at various levels/ explain the various aspects of articulation of speech sounds
- To teach practical skills such as phonetic transcription and reading of dictionaries
